1) Creation of Agency. The Broker, as agent for the Client, negotiates and advocates on behalf of the Client, performs the terms of any written agreement made with the Client, and promotes the interest of the Client with the utmost good faith, loyalty, and fidelity. The Client should carefully read all documents to assure that they adequately express Client's understanding of the transaction and protection of your own interests. The Client represents no other Broker has been employed as an exclusive agent for real estate defined in section 2 and agrees to protect, defend, indemnify and hold Broker harmless from the claims, liability, and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, arising by reason of the claim of any other Broker in compensation as the result of a transaction that is within the scope of this agreement. Not all agency options may be offered by Broker.

The Client authorizes the Broker, as Client's  exclusive/  non-exclusive agent, to use reasonable efforts to identify and communicate to Client real estate appearing to Broker to substantially meet the criteria described in Section 2 and to negotiate acceptance of any offer to purchase or lease such real estate.

The responsible Broker may appoint other affiliated licensees to be your agent during the term of this agreement should the appointed agent not be able to fulfill the terms of this agreement or by written agreement between you and the responsible Broker. An appointment of another or additional affiliated licensee does not relieve the first appointed agent of any duties owed to you.

Limited agency rules apply to the responsible Broker when you, as a purchaser, inquire about a property under contract for sale/lease with this firm. The responsible Broker can legally be the limited agent of both parties of a transaction with your knowledge and written consent of you and the other party.
